

G8 Summits

The Group of Eight (G8) refers to the group of eight highly industrialized nations—France, Germany, Italy, the United Kingdom, Japan, the United States, Canada, and Russia—that hold an annual meeting to foster consensus on global issues like economic growth and crisis management, global security, energy, and terrorism.

The List of Member countries are:

- France, Germany, Italy, United Kingdom, Japan, United States, Canada and Russia.

G8 Meetings & their Details:

Summits	Host Country	Host City	Date & Year
1	United States	Denver, Colorado	20-22 June 1997
2	United Kingdom	Birmingham, England	May 15-17, 1998
3	Germany	Cologne	June 18-20, 1999
4	Japan	Nago, Okinawa Prefecture	July 21-23, 2000
5	Italy	Genoa	July 21-22, 2001
6	Canada	Kananaskis, Alberta	June 26-27, 2002
7	France	Evian-les-Bains	June 1-3, 2003
8	United States	Sea Island, Georgia	June 8-10, 2004
9	United Kingdom	Scotland	July 6-8, 2005
10	Russia	Saint Petersburg	July 15-17, 2006
11	Germany	Berlin	6-8 June 2007
12	Japan	Yokohama	7-9 July 2008
13	Italy	Milano	July 8-10, 2009
14	Canada	Muskoka & Toronto	June 25-26, 2010
15	France	Paris	May 26-27, 2011
16	Mexico	Puebla	2012
17	USA	Washington D.C	May 18-19, 2012
18	UK	London	June 17-18, 2013
19	Russia	Moscow	June 4-5, 2014
20	Germany	Schloss Elmau	2015
21	Japan	Kashiko Island	2016
22	Italy	Taormina, Sicily	2017, May 26-27
23	Canada	Quebec, La Malbaie	June 8-9, 2018
24	France		2019
25	USA		2020
26	United Kingdom		2021

